

Quiz about Child Criminal Exploitation (CCE)

1. What is county lines?
 - a) A type of crime where drug gangs use young or vulnerable people to carry drugs and cash between cities and towns.
 - b) A type of crime where young or vulnerable people exploit drug gangs to make money.
 - c) A type of crime where drug gangs use drones to deliver drugs and cash.

2. Who is at risk of being exploited in county lines?
 - a) Young people and vulnerable adults who may be coerced, threatened, or tricked into carrying drugs and cash.
 - b) Drug dealers who work for the gangs.
 - c) Law enforcement officials who try to stop the gangs.

3. What are the signs that a child may be involved in county lines?
 - a) A sudden change in behaviour, including becoming secretive, aggressive, or using drugs.
 - b) Possession of multiple mobile phones or cash without a reasonable explanation.
 - c) Missing school regularly or unexplained absences.

4. What should school staff do if they suspect a child is involved in county lines?
 - a) Report the concerns to the designated safeguarding lead.
 - b) Confront the child and their family to get to the bottom of the situation.
 - c) Ignore the situation as it is not the school's responsibility.

5. What is the purpose of county lines exploitation?
 - a) To expand the drug market and make money for the gangs.
 - b) To recruit young people into the gangs.
 - c) To fight against other gangs.

6. What is cuckooing?
 - a) A type of bird that migrates to different countries.
 - b) A form of county lines exploitation where drug dealers take over a vulnerable person's home to use it as a base for their drug dealing activity.
 - c) A type of encryption used by drug dealers to communicate.

Quiz about Child Criminal Exploitation (CCE)

7. What should school staff do if they suspect a student is being cuckooed?
 - a) Report the concerns to the designated safeguarding lead or local authority.
 - b) Try to handle the situation themselves by contacting the drug dealers.
 - c) Ignore the situation as it is not the school's responsibility.

8. What are the potential consequences of county lines exploitation for young people and vulnerable adults?
 - a) Physical harm, emotional trauma, and criminalisation.
 - b) Financial gain and career opportunities.
 - c) Improved social status and respect in the community.

9. What is the importance of early intervention in addressing county lines exploitation?
 - a) To prevent young people and vulnerable adults from being drawn into the criminal activity.
 - b) To punish those who are already involved in the criminal activity.
 - c) To promote the benefits of drug use to vulnerable people.

10. How can school staff support students who are at risk of county lines exploitation?
 - a) By providing a safe and supportive environment where students can discuss their concerns.
 - b) By providing access to mental health and well-being services.
 - c) By offering opportunities for education and career development.

Quiz about Child Criminal Exploitation (CCE)

Answers:

1. a) A type of crime where drug gangs use young or vulnerable people to carry drugs and cash between cities and towns.
2. a) Young people and vulnerable adults who may be coerced, threatened, or tricked into carrying drugs and cash.
3. All of them
4. a) Report the concerns to the designated safeguarding lead.
5. a) To expand the drug market and make money for the gangs.
6. b) A form of county lines exploitation where drug dealers take over a vulnerable person's home to use it as a base for their drug dealing activity.
7. a) Report the concerns to the designated safeguarding lead or local authority.
8. a) Physical harm, emotional trauma, and criminalisation.
9. a) To prevent young people and vulnerable adults from being drawn into the criminal activity.
10. All of them