

Quiz about the Channel Programme

1. What is the Channel Programme?
 - a) A government initiative to prevent terrorism and radicalisation in schools
 - b) A program to support students with mental health issues
 - c) A scheme to promote physical fitness and healthy lifestyles for children
 - d) A network of after-school clubs for children
2. What is the aim of the Channel Programme?
 - a) To support individuals at risk of being drawn into terrorism and violent extremism
 - b) To identify and support students with mental health issues
 - c) To promote British values and cultural diversity in schools
 - d) To encourage children to participate in physical activities and sports
3. Who is responsible for referring a student to the Channel Programme?
 - a) The student's parents or guardians
 - b) The school's designated safeguarding lead
 - c) The student's friends or peers
 - d) The police or other agencies
4. What are the signs that a student may be vulnerable to radicalisation and need to be referred to the Channel Programme?
 - a) They have changed their group of friends
 - b) They have become more isolated or withdrawn
 - c) They are spending a lot of time online or on social media
 - d) All of the above
5. What is the process for referring a student to the Channel Programme?
 - a) The school's designated safeguarding lead makes a referral to the local authority's Channel panel
 - b) The police make a referral to the local authority's Channel panel
 - c) The student's parents or guardians make a referral to the local authority's Channel panel
 - d) The student's teacher makes a referral to the local authority's Channel panel
6. What is the role of the local authority's Channel panel?
 - a) To assess the risk of radicalisation for referred individuals

Quiz about the Channel Programme

- b) To provide support and intervention for individuals deemed to be at risk
 - c) To monitor and review the progress of individuals who have been supported by the Channel Programme
 - d) All of the above
7. How does the Channel Programme support individuals who have been referred?
- a) Through one-to-one support and mentoring
 - b) Through access to education and training opportunities
 - c) Through signposting to appropriate services and agencies
 - d) All of the above
8. What is the purpose of the Channel Programme's multi-agency approach?
- a) To ensure that individuals receive a holistic and coordinated response to their needs
 - b) To ensure that all agencies are aware of and involved in the Channel Programme's work
 - c) To promote joint working and information-sharing between agencies
 - d) All of the above
9. What is the role of the Prevent Duty in relation to the Channel Programme?
- a) To identify and support individuals who have already been radicalised
 - b) To prevent individuals from being drawn into terrorism and violent extremism in the first place
 - c) To provide support and intervention for individuals who have been referred to the Channel Programme
 - d) None of the above
10. What consent do you need to refer someone to the Channel Programme?
- a) You do not need to get consent
 - b) You need to require consent from the individual if they are aged 18 and over
 - c) If a child is under 18, you need to gain consent from their parent/career/guardian
 - d) b and c.

Quiz about the Channel Programme

Answers:

1. a) A government initiative to prevent terrorism and radicalization in schools
2. a) To support individuals at risk of being drawn into terrorism and violent extremism
3. b) The school's designated safeguarding lead
4. d) All of the above
5. a) The school's designated safeguarding lead makes a referral to the local authority's Channel panel
6. d) All of the above
7. d) All of the above
8. d) All of the above
9. b) To prevent individuals from being drawn into terrorism and violent extremism in the first place
10. d) b and c